

Teams Named for North American Futures Team Challenge at Bromont

By Jenni Autry on Apr 17, 2019 4:15 pm - 398 views

Teams have been announced for the next USEF/USET Foundation North American Futures Team Challenge, which will take place at the MARS Equestrian Bromont Three-Day Event on June 5-9, 2019, in Quebec, Canada.

Established with the USET Foundation and administered by USEF, the North American Futures Team Challenge is designed to complement the Eventing High Performance Program, which recently rolled out the new U.S. Eventing Pathway Program.

Two teams of four combinations, one coached by U.S. Eventing Director of High Performance Erik Duvander and one coached by USEF Eventing Emerging Athlete Coach Leslie Law, will participate in training and contest an unofficial simulated team competition at Bromont.

The following horses and riders have been named to Erik Duvander's team:

- Kimmy Cecere and Landmark's Monaco
- Sydney Conley Elliott and QC Diamantaire
- Allie Knowles and Business Class
- Kylie Lyman and Xuanatu